8. What are your rights in relation to your personal data which is handled by BCBC?

Individuals have various rights including:

Right of access

You can obtain a copy, subject to exemptions, of your personal data held by the Council. A copy of the application form is available from: <https://eforms.bridgend.gov.uk/Appforpersonalinformation>

Under the Act you are also entitled to obtain confirmation as to whether or not data concerning you is being processed by the Council. Where that is the case, you are entitled to the following information subject to exemptions:

- The purposes of and legal basis for the processing
- The categories of personal data concerned
- The recipients to whom the personal data has been disclosed
- The period for which it is envisaged that the personal data will be stored
- Communication of the personal data undergoing processing and of any available information as to its origin.

Please note that 'processing' means an operation or set of operations performed on personal data such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaption, alteration, erasure, restriction, retrieval.*

Proof of ID and any further information needed to locate the information may be required before the Council can comply with your request.

Any request for the above information should be made in writing to the Data Protection Officer and the Council will respond within one month.

Rectification of data

You can request the Council to rectify inaccurate personal data relating to you. If the data is inaccurate because it is incomplete, the Council must complete it if required to do so by you.

A request should be made in writing to the Data Protection Officer and a response will be sent within one month.

Erasure or restriction of personal data

You can request that the Council erase your data or restrict any processing of your data, subject to exemptions.

All requests should be made to the Data Protection Officer. The Council will then inform you of whether the request has been granted and if it has been refused, the reasons for the refusal.

Right not to be subject to automated decision-making

You have the right, subject to exemptions, not to be subject to a decision when it is based on automated processing and it produces a legal effect or a similarly significant effect on you. You have a right to express your point of view and obtain an explanation from the Council of its decision and challenge it.

However, it should be noted that this right does not apply to all decisions as there are exemptions for example authorisation by law, performance of a contract to which you are a party.

9. How long does BCBC retain personal data?

The Insurance and Risk Section of BCBC keeps personal data for 7 years following closure of its file in accordance with the Council's Data Retention Policy. Files for Minors are kept until they have reached the age of 21 years and 4 months.

10. The lawful basis on which we use your personal data

The legal basis allowing us to process your data will vary depending on your specific claim or enquiry but will be predominantly used where we need to process your information so an insurance claim can proceed. We will process your data:

- a. With consent;
- b. Where it is in the public interest to do so;
- c. Where it is in the legitimate interest of the Council to do so; for example where there may be a risk to public health and safety; and
- d. For compliance with a legal obligation.
